Commencement Speaker

The Honorable Barbara Jordan

Barbara Jordan, one of the most admired women in America, had established herself as a nationally-prominent role model for women and blacks by the time she retired from political life in 1978. A three-term congresswoman from Texas, she had been mentioned as a prospect for attorney general, the Supreme Court, or even the vice presidency. She had also become a prisoner of what she calls "the spiral to get ahead."

In a recent Parade article by Malcolm Boyd, Jordan explained her decision to trade the demands of government for those of studying and teaching government at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin.

"I changed directions, moved into a different arena of activity," she said. "Now I find teaching extraordinarily satisfying. I realize that probably through my entire political career I was in training for this."

Of her latest career, Jordan said, "I'm teaching young people who will move into local, state, and federal positions of power. Some will run for political office. It's a remarkable opportunity to have an impact on the generation that will succeed me."

Jordan, now Lyndon B. Johnson Centennial Professor of National Policy, teaches seminars in policy development and political values and ethics. And she focuses on the philosophical aspects of politics.

"There is no reason why a country as large and powerful as we are should not occupy the highest moral position possible in relation to other countries...The core of morality is to do unto others as you would have them do unto you. If you make that the central theme of your morality code, it will serve you well as a moral individual.

"I believe each individual should have a principled core of his or her being that cannot be negotiated out," she said. "This has served me well."

The University Mace and Batons

The Mace and Batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from newel posts from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The Batons are carried by members of the faculty who have served as chairs of the Campus Council or the Campus Faculty. The Mace is carried by the Chief Marshal, who is the current chair of the Campus Faculty.

Marshals' Gowns

The gowns worn by the Marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

Honor Stoles

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University honors. White represents High Honors (summa cum laude) and cardinal represents Honors (cum laude).

Academic Regalia

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or dark blue—Ph.D.; light blue—Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hoods denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic major in which the wearer has taken his or her degree. Some examples are listed below:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Arts and Letters	White	Music	Pink
Business and Bus. Admin.	Drab	Nursing	Apricot
Dentistry	Lilac	Pharmacy	Solid Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green
Engineering	Orange	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Forestry	Russett	Science	Golden Yellow
Home Economics	Maroon	Social Science	Cream
Humanities	Crimson	Social Work	Citron
Journalism	Crimson	Speech	Silver Gray
Law	Purple	Theology	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon Yellow	Veterinary Science	Gray

The University Song

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas which should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '06, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

Alma Mater

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward
Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth,
Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—
Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth.
Shout for the victor or tear for the vanquished;
Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true;
Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—
Mother of Mothers, we kneel until you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depths will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

CITATIONS

Distinguished Alumni

Norma Lea Beasley

Sidney A. Moncrief

Honorary Degree Commendation

Dr. Neil Compton

Dr. Neil Compton of Bentonville is a retired physician who has been a leader in efforts to preserve natural Arkansas wilderness areas.

A native of Benton County, Dr. Compton graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1935 with a bachelor's degree in zoology and geology. He earned the M.D. degree in 1939 from the University of Arkansas School of Medicine in Little Rock.

His career was interrupted by World War II, during which he served with the U.S. Navy at duty stations in the United States and in the Fiji Islands, Guadalcanal, and Espirita Santo. After the war he completed his residency in obstetrics and entered private practice in Bentonville from 1949 to 1975. He was associated with the Rogers Medical Center until 1978, when he retired.

Always interested in the scenic, scientific, and recreational potential of the Ozarks, Dr. Compton was involved in an early effort to preserve Lost Valley in Newton County. In 1962 he and other concerned conservationists formed the Ozark Society to oppose U.S. Army Corps of Engineers plans to build dams on the Buffalo River. Dr. Compton served as president of that organization for the next 10 years.

During that decade he led the Society's lobbying effort to halt plans to dam the river, arguing that the area should, instead, become a national park. Working with Sen. J. William Fulbright, Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt and Governor Orval Faubus, the Society eventually triumphed. In March, 1972, President Richard M. Nixon signed legislation creating the Buffalo National River. In the same year, Dr. Compton turned the leadership of the Ozark Society over to Dr. Joe Nix and was appointed to the Citizen's Advisory Committee of the Southwest Region of the National Park Service, a position he held until 1977.

Dr. Compton has in recent years taken active roles in promoting the creation of the 10,000-acre Upper Buffalo Wilderness in the Ozark National Forest and the 14,000-acre Caney Creek Wilderness in the Ouachita National Forest.

He has received an American Motors Award for his work on the Buffalo River controversy and this year was appointed to the University of Arkansas Museum Advisory Board.

He is the author of The High Ozarks, A Vision of Eden, published by the Ozark Society Foundation.

Honorary Degree Commendation

The Honorable Barbara Jordan

Barbara Jordan is holder of the Lyndon B. Johnson Centennial Chair in National Policy at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin.

From 1972-78, Jordan earned national attention as a congresswoman from Texas, climaxing a political career she began shortly after completing her education. She graduated in 1956 from Texas Southern University with a bachelor's degree in political science and history. She received the LL.B. degree at Boston University in 1959 and returned to Houston, where she entered private law practice.

In 1962 she made the first of two unsuccessful bids for a seat in the Texas House of Representatives. In 1966 she became the first black woman to be elected to the Texas Senate, in which she served until 1972. In that year she served as president pro tempore of the Senate and as "governor for a day"—the first black woman governor in American history.

In 1972 Jordan was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from the 18th District of Texas. As a congresswoman, she served on the House Committee on the Judiciary, the House Committee on Government Operations, and the Steering Committee of the Democratic Caucus. She attracted national attention during the House Judiciary Committee's televised hearings on impeaching President Richard M. Nixon. In 1976 Jordan became the first woman and first black to deliver the keynote address at a Democratic National Convention. She took a leading role in the National Women's conference in Houston in 1977. The next year, she chose not to seek a fourth term and withdrew from political life.

While in Congress, Jordan sponsored several proposals eventually enacted into law, including: amendments to the Voting Rights Act which expanded its coverage and provided for the printing of bilingual ballots; repeal of federal authorization for state "Fair Trade" laws which sanctioned vertical price-fixing schemes; and detailed mandatory Civil Rights enforcement procedures for the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration and the Office of Revenue Sharing.

From 1979-82 she was the Lyndon B. Johnson Public Service Professor at the Johnson School of Public Affairs.

Jordan holds 25 honorary doctoral degrees in addition to that being conferred by the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Conferring universities include Harvard, Princeton, Notre Dame, Brandeis, William and Mary and Wake Forest, as well as the Tuskegee Institute.

Distinguished Alumna Citation

Norma Lea Beasley

Norma Lea Beasley is chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Safeco Land Title of Dallas and also has many other business interests.

A native of Springdale, she earned a law degree at the University of Arkansas in 1953. She was the only woman in her law class and one of only 17 graduating survivors of the original enrollment of 87.

After a year as attorney for a Tulsa oil and gas firm, she moved to Dallas and, while beginning her career in title insurance, completed course work at Southern Methodist University for a master's degree in oil and gas and taxation. To supplement her income, Beasley taught business law and real estate evening classes for SMU's downtown extension program. She later taught at El Centro and Eastfield community colleges.

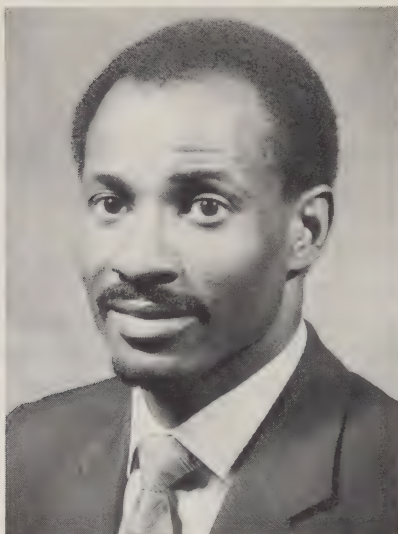

By 1960, she had completed her work at SMU, was head of the legal department and general counsel for Fidelity Title, and had formed a business and real estate partnership of her own. She eventually became executive vice president at Fidelity Title, leaving in 1968 to start an independent legal operation affiliated with Hexter-Fair Title and becoming her own boss. While that affiliation flourished, Beasley and various partners opened six title companies in the Dallas region. In 1975 she and a Fort Worth attorney, Paul Pulliam, formed Beasley & Pulliam, a firm which specializes in real estate law.

In 1979 she formed a partnership to buy Safeco Land Title's Dallas branch and within the year owned a dozen offices, employing 100 people who wrote about $4 million in title insurance premium income. By 1983 the company had 21 offices, about 200 employees, and premium income of about $16 million.

In addition to Safeco, Beasley is a partner in seven other title companies with 33 offices. Her holdings today also include manufacturing, oil, real estate, and banking businesses.

She was recently named Distinguished Alumna of the Month by the UA School of Law and is to be included in a book published by the National Women's Economic Alliance featuring 29 successful American women. She contributed an executive perspective to the textbook Organizational Behavior: Understanding and Managing People at Work.

Distinguished Alumnus Citation

Sidney A. Moncrief

Sidney A. Moncrief of Little Rock, a member of the Milwaukee Bucks professional basketball team, graduated from Little Rock Hall High School in 1975 and from the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, in 1979.

Moncrief excelled in athletics in high school, where he was named the outstanding player in 1975. As a member of the Razorbacks basketball team, his athletic prowess led the team to the NCAA tournament in 1978 and again in 1979. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team four consecutive years. Also in 1979, his senior year, he was a unanimous choice for the All-America team on virtually every major sports poll. The same year he was chosen in the first round of the NBA draft by the Milwaukee Bucks.

In 1982, Moncrief was chosen for the first of a string of five NBA All Star games that continues into the current NBA season. Moncrief, who is a prolific scorer and adept at every phase of basketball offense, was selected the NBA Defensive Player of the Year in 1983 and in 1984.

During the summer months, Moncrief has conducted summer basketball camps in nine different cities. The camps, sponsored by Arkla Gas Co., are Moncrief's way of returning something to his home state.

Moncrief also prepared a teaching-instructional film for the Special Olympics for the 1984 campaign. He was a sponsor for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Frank Broyles Classic Golf Tournament in 1984 and the same year was honorary chairman of the Boy Scout Roundup Campaign.

The Sidney A. Moncrief Scholarship was established in the 1984-85 academic year. The scholarship will be awarded to a history student who excels in academics and desires to study black history. The award carries an initial stipend renewable for up to four years.

Moncrief recently was named to the board of directors for the Arkla Gas Co. and the Savers Federal Savings and Loan in Little Rock.

He is a native of Little Rock and is married to the former Debra Bunting, also of Little Rock.
